OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5, 1900.

NO. 260

REPUBLICAN LEADERS SURE OF M'KINLEY.

Canvass in Many States Shows That the Majority of the Electors Will Stand By the Party of Prosperity.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Hanna made his last speech of the campaign today, addressing several thousand railroad employees and steel workers at South Chicago. When the Illinois Central special bearing the senator and party arrived, the whistles of all the big mills were blown and large crowds gathered at the depot to extend a welcome. Accompanying Mr. Hanna were Richard Yates, the Republican candidate for Governor of Illinois. At 2:30 p. m. Senator Hanna will leave for Cleveland, where he will vote tomorrow, after which he will go to Canton to be the guest of the President.

ROOSEVELT AT HOME.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Governor Roosevelt remained at his home in Oyster Bay today. He said he was in good health and that he was confident of a Republican victory tomorrow. The Governor will make the last speech of the campaign in Oyster Bay this evening.

CLAIMS IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Since Saturday there have been no developments in political circles in this State. Those in charge of the campaign employed their time in dictating statements for publication and in writing final letters of warning, of admonition or of instruction to party leaders. Both Republican and Democratic leaders reviewed their figures and election estimates and both sides moved them up a peg or two, then up a peg or two.

On the Democratic side Richard Croker claims the borough of Manhattan by 50,000 plurality. The Democrats have not given out results of their canvass by county and assembly districts but it is understood they hope to carry New York State by from 20,000 to 25,000 plurality.

The Republican leaders, on the other hand, claim the State by not less than 100,000 plurality. Senator Depew, who returned today from a trip of rural New York, is of the opinion that the Republicans will come to the Harlem River with 150,000 plurality.

NEWS FROM ILLINOIS.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The State of Illinois has been regarded at both the national headquarters as one of the pivotal States of the contest. The chairman of the State Central Committee each claim a majority for the national and State ticket. Mr. Bryan spent nearly a week in Illinois and Governor Roosevelt visited the State four times.

The candidates have devoted particular attention to Chicago and Cook county. The most distinguished speakers of both parties have also been brought in to give their advice to the voters. The largest vote ever cast in the State is looked for.

FIGHT IN INDIANA.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—One of the hardest fought contests in the history of Indiana closed today. Both Roosevelt and Bryan have visited nearly every section of the State, the former having made four tours of the commonwealth. The indications are that a heavy vote will be cast. The Republicans claim the State by 30,000. The Democrats declare they have the State won but will not give any estimates.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, 11 A. M.—Special weather forecast for Tuesday, November 6th.
The fine weather conditions of last night have changed but little. On the Pacific Coast, Rocky Mountain States, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Tennessee, the East Gulf and North Atlantic States, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware the weather is certain to be unusually fine, with clear skies and pleasant temperature. In New York the weather is clear except cloudiness on lakes, where light showers occurred last night. There is a possibility of light and important showers in the northern part of the State tonight, but north winds are now setting in and the weather is almost certain to be fair and pleasant Tuesday. In New England there is considerable cloudiness and a low pressure which is drifting eastward. Fair weather will prevail, except that light rains in Maine, Northern New Hampshire and Vermont tonight may continue during a portion of the day Tuesday.

WILLIS L. MOORE, Chief United States Weather Bureau, NEBRASKA CAMPAIGN.
OMAHA, Nov. 5.—With the special journey of Mr. Bryan through part of the State, ending in Omaha tonight, and the Republican parade and barbecue in Omaha tonight, the campaign will be closed. State Chairman Lindsay, Republican, claims the State by from 5,000 to 7,000, will elect four Congressmen surely and gain a majority of fifteen in the Legislature. Chairman Hall, Democrat, claims fusion will win by the very least 15,000, having this estimate on reports from over a thousand precincts; that fusion will elect five out of six Congressmen and have a good majority in the Legislature.

FUSION IN KANSAS.
TOPIKA, Kan., Nov. 5.—The election in Kansas, in addition to Presidential electors is for a full State ticket, Congressmen and both branches of the Legislature, which will elect a United States Senator to succeed Lucien B. Barker. There is a complete fusion on State and National tickets in opposition to the Republicans. It is generally conceded that the Republicans will elect Congressmen in the First and Sixth Districts.

The fusion forces apparently stand the best chance in the Third. Both sides make strong claims for all districts except these three. Bryan carried the State four years ago by 15,000 and two years ago the Republicans elected Governor Stanley by 10,000. This year both sides claim the State. The chances seem to favor the Republicans.

UTAH VOTE.
SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 5.—Politicians were active early this morning, and there was unusual activity at the various political headquarters. Candidates for State offices, who have been campaigning here, have returned to the city and the final instructions are being given to the party workers for tomorrow.

No effort will be spared to see that every available vote is brought to the polls.

NEVADA IN LINE.
RENO, Nev., Nov. 5.—The Republicans and Democrats closed their campaigns Saturday evening. National Committeeman Egan thinks the State will give McKinley a small majority.

The Democrats say Bryan will carry the State by 10,000 majority. The indications are for a big vote, as much interest is being manifested all over the State.

OREGON'S VOTE.
PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 5.—The various books were closed previous to the State election in June last and the law in Oregon no provision for opening them until 1902. The only means by which the unrecorded vote can cast his ballot is to secure the affidavits of six freeholders. This procedure, it is claimed, will keep at least 15,000 voters from the polls. The registration for the June election was 100,000.

The chairman of the Republican State Committee claims that McKinley will receive at least 10,000 plurality, and the Democrats concede the State to the Republicans.

WASHINGTON FOR M'KINLEY.
SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—There will be a very large vote in this State, intense interest being displayed in the campaign. East of the mountains the main fight is between the Republican Congressmen and the Democratic members. West of the mountains the fight has been bitter between Cushman, Republican and Donald, Democrat.

Rogers, Democrat, will undoubtedly be elected Governor, but the Republicans stand a good chance of winning the State's electoral vote.

IDAHO'S CLAIMS.
BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 5.—It is five weeks tomorrow the vote of Idaho will be increased from 20,000 in 1896 to 50,000. The registration has been 100,000 and the universal interest taken in the election will bring all the voters out unless a warm comes up to interfere with the voting of women in the country districts.

The rival claims have not changed their estimates. Both sides very confident of success. It is thought that John T. Morrison, Republican candidate for Congress, will lead the State ticket and may be elected over though the Republican of the ticket is defeated. The Democrats claim 60,000 majority and the Republicans from 3,000 to 5,000.

IN MARYLAND.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—The forces of both great parties in Maryland are in complete fire with good prospects of a full vote. The phenomenal heavy registration throughout indicates a marked increase over the vote in 1896, when it was below the average and considerably less than the vote in the State election of 1900.

WISCONSIN'S MAJORITY.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—General Bryan, Republican State Chairman, today estimates the State by 10,000 to 15,000 plurality. Said of the Democratic Committee: "I believe the State will go Democratic on both State and National tickets by 15,000 to 20,000. Surface indications point to Republican success on National State and Congressional tickets."

MONTANA'S RETURN.
ST. PAUL, Nov. 5.—A Helena, Mont., dispatch says:
Activities have been presented to the readers agents here by members of the Republican Central Committee over the last over one hundred persons registered in this city are not entitled to vote. Most of these men are strangers in the city, who gave their addresses at different looking houses. There are said to be over 100 similar colorists in Gallatin county, while they are so numerous in Butte that no reliable estimate can be made. The Republicans are securing evidence and intend to prosecute.

TALK IN MISSOURI.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 5.—J. M. Selbert and Thomas J. Atkinson, chairman respectively of the Democratic and Republican State Committees, reiterated the predictions made last night, and the respective followers express the utmost confidence of their fulfillment. If the present pleasant weather continues the vote will be heavy.

The registration, especially in St. Louis, shows a large addition to the list of voters.

DOWN IN WEST VIRGINIA.
CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 5.—Indications point to the heavy polling of voters throughout the State tomorrow. Chairman Miller has every assurance that Bryan will carry the State. Chairman Dwyer expresses himself equally as hopeful of the State for McKinley.

The Democratic organization is under strong leadership. The Republicans are well organized, but local county troubles may give the leadership to the Democrats, thus defeating Senator McKinley for a second term.

IN NEW JERSEY.
NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 5.—At Republican State headquarters in this city there was the utmost confidence that McKinley would carry New Jersey by 20,000 to 30,000 plurality and that the Republicans will elect six of the eight Congressmen.

FIAR TROUBLE IN COLORADO.
DENVER, Col., Nov. 5.—The registration has been largely increased throughout Colorado this year, mainly through the activity of the women voters. In Denver 60,000 names are registered, 20,000 more than in 1896. Charges of padding the registration and colonizing have been made on both sides.

On the national ticket the question appears to be merely the size of Bryan's majority. The fusion State ticket will not receive the entire Bryan vote, but his success is regarded as probable, nevertheless. The next Legislature will elect a United States Senator to succeed Wolcott, and the Democrats claim that not over a dozen members pledged to Wolcott will be elected. Judge Hollett, in the United States District Court today, made an order forbidding United States Marshal Bailey to appoint deputies to serve at the polls tomorrow. Sheriff Jones, of Arapahoe county, has sworn in 500 or 600 Republicans as deputies to serve at the polls in this city, and the Democratic Fire and Police Board has appointed as many special policemen.

KENTUCKY ELECTIONS.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Both the Democrats and the Republicans continue claiming not only victory, but decisive victory. That and a landslide either way tomorrow need not be surprising. Conditions have so changed and party lines have been so shattered since the last general election that any forecast as to the outcome is practically of no value. The indications are that the biggest vote ever polled in the State will be cast.

OHIO NEWS.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 5.—On the day before election there are no indications of radical changes in Ohio over 1896, with which the Ohio returns will tomorrow night be compared. Four years ago the Republicans in Ohio had a plurality of 51,000 over the Democrats and 4,891 over Bryan as the candidate of both the Democrats and the Populists. Bryan is on only one ticket in Ohio this year. It is conceded that the Democrats will make gains in Cincinnati and other cities.

SPEAK FOR METCALF

A Great Meeting of Workingmen at Noon Today.

Fine Compliment for Republican Congressional Candidate.

At 12:15 sharp today, at the bow of the new four-mast schooner Forester, in Hay & Wright's shipyard, the Metcalf Club convened for its final meeting before election.

The club was called to order by the secretary, G. J. Kelleher, who in his modest way complimented the club on its good work during the recent campaign and urged the members to stand by the ship of State.

The secretary then introduced the president of the club, J. H. Patton, who talked to the "boys" fifteen or twenty minutes. Mr. Patton said in part:

"My fellow shipmates: As you stand here today in this glorious noonday sun, beneath the glow of this strong and graceful ship that in a few days will be baptized in the spray of old ocean, there to join her great fleet of sisters that have gone out from this yard and whose keels you once laid upon these very blocks, the last four of which have been already dedicated to the waves during this prosperous year 1900; as we thus review the work you have accomplished during the last few months you may well be proud of your handiwork. Do let us not forget that the name 'Hay & Wright' has become famous over all the broad Pacific, and in their class are not excelled in the world of ship builders. My fellow workers, as we stand here in our shirt sleeves this bright November day, while our cheeks are being fanned by the soft and gentle breeze that is wafted from the Isles of perpetual summer, we have much to be thankful for.

"This very hour in some portions of our native States the sun is obscured by the cold gray clouds of approaching winter, while the north wind is whistling through the trees and the snow-birds are twittering about the door, and in other places men are idle and industries are closed down to satisfy that infamous dog in the manger called 'strike'."

"When we consider that we live in a climate where we can work in comfort every day in the year, that our ship yard is located in the most healthful spot on any yard on the Pacific Coast; that our employers are the most reasonable and liberal; that our foremen are the most kind and impartial; and that our workmen are the most sober, industrious and contented, I repeat that we have much to be thankful for."

"I am proud to be a fellow workman with this body of men, and a member of this club. Knowing you as I do, to be not only good mechanics and faithful workers, but intelligent, broad-minded and independent thinkers, I have not the least doubt but that when you go to the polls tomorrow you will vote for the men whose untiring efforts have been and shall be to further the best interests of our coast in general and our immediate vicinity in particular."

"Every dollar appropriated for the improvement of our harbor, or the erection of a new building, means employment for our mechanics and our laborers. About three months ago this club was organized. At that meeting you passed resolutions commending the course pursued by Mr. Metcalf, and recommended the re-nomination of Mr. Metcalf. (Cheers.) How nobly you stood by your colors, and how ably you did your work, will be indicated by the following letter:

"Mr. J. H. Patton, President Ship Builders' Metcalf Club, 769 Jefferson Street, Oakland—My Dear Sir: I am just in the contest just drawn to a return to Congress of Hon. Victor H. Metcalf. (Cheers.) How nobly you stood by your colors, and how ably you did your work, will be indicated by the following letter:

"Let us notice here a few of the special matters of legislation that are of particular interest to us in this vicinity, and have been brought about by the untiring efforts of the Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, assisted by the Hon. Geo. C. Perkins.

"First, a survey of Oakland harbor from the mouth of the tidal canal to the bay of San Francisco, with a view of deepening and widening the channel from Alameda Street bridge west to the bay, and excavating and dredging the East of Oakland basin.

"Second, survey of the San Joaquin River and its tributaries from Antioch to Suisun Point, so as to enable deep water vessels to load grain direct from

LAST CALL TO THE VOTERS OF COUNTY.

By the Logic of Events the Republican Party Stands More Than Ever for the Faith and Prosperity of the Nation.

Tomorrow the freemen of America will register their decree as to the policies which shall control this republic for the next four years. No man should neglect at this time to express at the polls his conviction as to which party will best conserve the safety and honor and glory of his country.

This is no time to cling to narrow ideas of party fealty and the prejudices of past affiliations.

Patriotism now calls to the voter. By the logic of events the Republican party stands more than ever for the faith and prosperity of the Nation. It represents order and security at home and the stability of free institutions abroad. Its success will again demonstrate that a public credit is securely grounded on the patriotic impulses and sense of individual honor of an educated and enlightened people.

the sharrow, thus avoiding the cost of shipping by rail.

"Third, changing the dry dock at Mare Island from wood to stone.

"Fourth, nearly $1,000,000 appropriated for Mare Island navy yard for improvements, construction of new buildings and purchase of new machinery.

"Fifth, nearly $50,000 appropriations for the naval training station at Goat Island.

"Sixth, selection of the new postoffice site and the purchase thereof by the Government; plans for the new building are prepared and bids will be called for in a short time.

"Seventh, establishment of five substations for the Oakland postoffice; increase in compensation for eight of the clerks; free delivery for the annexed district; five additional letter carriers for Oakland; free delivery for West Berkeley, Lorn and Peralta and four additional letter carriers for Berkeley.

"There are many other matters of general and special legislation, but it is impossible to go into them at this time.

"But we are assured that by returning the Hon. Victor H. Metcalf to Congress our interests in the future, as in the past, will be earnestly looked after.

"And now, my fellow shipmates, in conclusion let me say that when we go to the polls tomorrow let it be our determination to carry victory with us, urging all who are lukewarm and undecided to awaken and vote for continued prosperity by casting their ballots for the Hon. Victor H. Metcalf for Congress and the Hon. Joseph M. Kelley for the Assembly from the Forty-eighth District."

At the close of Mr. Patton's address the buildings and lumber piles reached with applause, for there went up three mighty cheers for the candidates.

NEW YORK'S CHIEF INDICTED.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Licensed Wire
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—It is reported that Chief of Police Devery has been indicted by the Grand Jury for alleged interference with State Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh.

At 2:30 o'clock he hurried from police headquarters, explaining: "They are crazy, they are crazy. McCullagh has had me indicted for interfering with him in the election business."

It developed that the difference between the Chief and the State Superintendent of Elections is due to a dispute as to the right of a challenged man to swear in his vote if a State deputy wishes to arrest him. Mr. Devery claims that neither the State deputy nor a policeman has the right to make an arrest until after the vote has been cast. McCullagh holds that it is the purpose of the law to prevent the casting of an illegal ballot and that the arrest should be made even without a warrant before the challenged man votes.

Chief Devery said today that he would assist McCullagh in every way in sending a man to prison who may be arrested after voting. He also said: "I'm going to see that the right of every voter is protected if I can do it. I do not anticipate any trouble of any sort. During the last two years we have had no trouble and will not have any tomorrow."

Chief Devery said later that he could issue instructions to the policemen at the polling places to take the advice of the boards of inspectors in the matter of arresting voters for whom there were warrants. If the board thought a man should be allowed to vote the enlightenment of the world.

While victory is sure, no Republican should fail to vote. Every one should cast his ballot for his party nominee as a duty owed to his country. The ballots of Republicanism this year are for home and country. Past performances of the party is a glorious presage for the future. Recent years have stamped on political history two striking pictures, the direct opposite of each other, and when the voter goes to the polls he will have to decide which of these pictures depicts his ideal of what the Constitution of this country should be. Patrick Henry said, "I know no way of judging the future but by the past."

Guided by the light of this lamp, no citizen can fail to vote for the re-election of William McKinley and a Congress that will hold up his hands.

The will was executed July 12, 1894. Chapman & Clift are attorneys for the estate.

DEATH SUMMONS JUDGE CATLIN.

Prominent Jurist Passes
Away at His Sacramento Home.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Judge A. J. Catlin, one of the oldest and best known lawyers in Northern California, a pioneer of 1849, died at 10 o'clock this morning at his residence in this city. He was one of the best judges in this country. He died at the age of 70 years.

In 1849 Catlin was tendered the nomination for Congress on the Whig ticket, but declined. In 1854 he was elected to the Legislature and a ticket made up of off-line Whigs and Know-Nothings. In March 1872 he was appointed one of the three members of the State Board of Equalization and served until April, 1875. Catlin was brought forward as a candidate for Governor before the Independent State Convention but was defeated by the combined votes of the supporters of John Bidwell and M. M. Lusk, which on the final ballot were in favor of Bidwell.

At intervals he was the editor of the old Sacramento Union. He was thus employed from September, 1861, to the commencement of Lincoln's second campaign until April, 1865.

Early.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire
HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 5.—It was yet a half hour to dawn when the Democratic candidate began the last day of his campaign and he had commenced the first speech of the day before sunrise. Last night he told the newspaper correspondents he expected to put in eighteen hours today, and notified them that he would start on his tour at 6:45 o'clock this morning. When he reached the depot of the Burlington Railroad his special train was ready. Fifty or more persons accompanied him. He will make four or eight speeches in Omaha tonight.

Traveler was reached at 7 o'clock. A train drew into the station a large number of people were drawn up along the railroad track. Mr. Bryan was escorted to a public hall near by, where he made his first speech. The hall was quite large, but was filled to overflowing. The speech was very little different from Mr. Bryan's speeches to the agricultural communities in other parts of the country.

The Chicago Board of Trade had made the injunction perpetual. Sixty days are allowed the attorneys for the board to prepare a bill of exceptions to be carried before the Appellate Court.

CHINA MUST BOW TO POWERS.

The Peace Negotiations are Making Good Progress.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Minister Conger's last advice to the State Department indicates that satisfactory progress is being made before the Ministerial corps at Peking toward the arrangement of a basis upon which negotiations shall be had with the Chinese Government for a final settlement. The Ministers have passed on the questions of punishments and also on several other important points which are to figure in the negotiations.

The results have not been made public.

The American Minister is reported to be participating actively in the negotiations, and the proceedings are harmonious. So far these have been confined to the effort to secure a permanent agreement by all the Ministers upon the basis of negotiations, and up to this time no effort has been made to deal directly with the Chinese government.

It is the understanding that when the Ministers themselves have agreed upon their program there will be little difficulty in securing its acceptance by the Chinese government, which, indeed, is looking to the American opposition to the united demands of the powers.

The plaintiffs state they hold stock in the Wells, Fargo and Southern Express Company, which did business in Louisiana and which had a working arrangement with the Wells, Fargo Company for a district of receipts of the business done in those States. They charge that the Wells, Fargo Company broke faith and obtained control of this business themselves.

There are prospects of a contest over the estate of John Obermayer, who died recently in Alameda leaving property valued at $5,000. A petition was filed for letters of administration shortly after his death. Today the Public Administrator stepped in, claiming that the first petitioner is not a fit person to handle the estate and asking that petitioner be given letters.

On top of this Julius Quinchard presented in court this afternoon the purported will of deceased. It was written and witnessed by Quinchard. Judge Greene will hear the matter in two weeks.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 5.—A Cherokee Indian and a white man, both in their teens, confessed a recent crime Sunday morning by stealing a horse and saddle at the Indian school near here. From the school they proceeded to Gibson's ranch, held up the man in charge and robbed him of an unknown sum. About 5 o'clock they reached Goddard Station, a small road house on the Black Canon road, where the agent was covered with a revolver and the place filled with $500 in money and jewelry. A few miles farther on they dismounted, floundered out the throats of their animals and started across the country foot. Officers are in pursuit and both are well known they cannot escape.

Great Triumph for McKinley.

BALLOTS MUST BEAR A CIRCLE.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—On the application of G. H. Davis and J. A. Harland, candidates for Mayor and Municipal League parties for City Treasurer and Registrar of Wills respectively, Judge Anderson today granted an order restraining the commissioners of Philadelphia from issuing a new set of ballots for the city with the circle at the top of the Municipal League ticket.

The opposition to Hampton Moore and Jacob Singer, candidates of the Republican party for City Treasurer and Registrar of Wills respectively, as well as opposition to legislative candidates of the League faction of the Republican party, led to a fusion movement between anti-Quincy Republicans and Democrats for these offices. The anti-Quincy faction is represented by the Municipal League. Under the Municipal League ticket the official ballot and sample ballots with a circle at the top of the Municipal League column, which with one stroke a voter might signify his intention of voting the straight League ticket. This bears the names of only the county and legislative candidates, and on Saturday, Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, Dettler notified the County Commissioners that this ballot was not to be used.

There are no State candidates and it is therefore not entitled to a circle. Late that night the process of the city's printer was delayed, he commenced a suit against Hay & Wright for $25,000 damages for the death of Lauritsen.

The deceased was employed as a laborer at the shipyards of the defendant and it is claimed that on July 23 of this year a pile of lumber fell, through the carelessness of the firm, crushing Lauritsen beneath it and crushing him to death.

Lauritsen left a wife and an infant child.

MONDAY NOVEMBER 5, 1900.

The more Democratic roughs assault Governor Roosevelt the larger the Republican majority will be.

Mr. Metcalf has made his campaign entirely in the open. The campaign against him has been made entirely under cover. Which is the most deserving of confidence and respect?

California should send a solid Republican delegation to Congress. No chance should be taken of electing a Democratic Congress that will tie up the hands of President McKinley.

Bryan will probably not get as many votes next Tuesday as he did four years ago, but there will be more clean shirts among his followers, owing to the non-partisan character of the prosperity that McKinley and Republican rule has brought upon the country.

A petrified man has been found in Arkansas. There will be a whole lot of them lying around there next Wednesday morning, when the old-time Democrats compare the returns with the estimates Chairman Jones has been giving out and which they have been fondly relying upon.

Secretary of the Treasury Gage says that it will be rank ingratitude if California does not go for McKinley. His stand is well taken when it is remembered that the policies of the present administration have been the cause of the disbursement of about $75,000,000 Federal money among our people during the past three years.

Put the question to yourself: Are there not far more opportunities for business and is not everything in a much healthier condition today than it was four years ago, when the Democrats were re-elected from office? Why, then, risk a change back to the old hard times, when it is so easy to continue the present prosperity?

Delegations from all over the country are promised for the Good Roads Congress to be held at Chicago on the 19th inst. Uniform bills will be prepared for presentation to the Legislatures of the various States, and this time it looks as if something more will occur than mere talk. As everyone is satisfied that better roads are needed it should not be such a terrible task to get them, and lack of united effort is the only reason we did not secure them long ago.

Anonymous circulars distributed in the closing days of a campaign attacking a man of such unblemished character as Victor H. Metcalf can only have the effect of increasing his majority. Such cowardly methods have long been under the ban of shrewd political managers for two reasons. They are too contemptible to meet with the sanction of high-minded men and in the second place they always damage the party or person using them. Mr. Metcalf cannot be injured by such despicable tactics.

A DANGEROUS AMENDMENT.

Relative to Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 22, relating to the judiciary and establishing courts of appeal, THE TRIBUNE today prints a communication from W. S. Goodfellow, the eminent lawyer, giving conclusive reasons why it should be voted down. Mr. Goodfellow points out that a fatal ambiguity leaves the question of jurisdiction in doubt, perplexing even the best lawyers to decide as to what courts and in what cases appeals will lie. It will prolong litigation and increase the expense.

These objections are sufficient to determine the mischievous character of the proposed change, but there are others which show it to be absolutely vicious. It empowers two Superior Judges to render a final decree, whereas it requires three Judges of the Supreme Court to render even a department decree, which is still subject to revision by the whole court. This sweeping jurisdiction is bad enough, but it is attended with provisions which amount to a complete denial of justice in cases calling for relief by the immediate intervention of courts. By lodging the power to determine appeals in all actions commenced and determined in the Superior Court in the District Court of Appeals, the right of appeal is deferred till final judgment is rendered. Therefore there can be no appeal from interlocutory orders, including appointment of receivers, granting or refusing injunctions, dissolving or refusing to dissolve attachments, granting or refusing change of venue, or interlocutory decrees of partition.

Mr. Goodfellow points out that the amendment introduces a vast amount of new litigation and new questions, and creates labor for judges and lawyers at present unknown to bench and bar. Hence he concludes that it will throw all litigation into a confusion from which years and additional legislation will be required to extricate it.

Radical changes in the judicial system should only be made after careful investigation and in ways clearly defined. This proposed amendment has not been publicly debated at all, and it appears to be full of dangerous possibilities. It is ill digested and framed on lines too ambiguous for ordinary comprehension. Litigation at present is too prolonged and expensive. It is a step in the wrong direction to add to these evils. It is also a bad tendency to leave the question of jurisdiction in such a nebulous state that even lawyers will be puzzled to determine in the most vital matters.

A FINAL REVIEW.

On this, the very eve of election day, little can be accomplished by again entering into a discussion of the merits and demerits of the candidates or of the policies they represent, for the hour of argument has ended and the moment of action has arrived. Every citizen has by this time made up his mind as to which side of the controversy appeals to him as the right one and as both parties have presented their cases in full detail during the past few weeks, no voter can be in ignorance as to what his verdict means when he places his ballot in the box.

The Republicans meet election day brimful of confidence, and that they have every reason to feel that way cannot be gainsaid. Their campaigning has been productive of every indication of victory, for every preliminary test that has been made has shown that the people are well satisfied with the present administration of national affairs that they intend to endorse it by ensuring themselves a continuance thereof for the next four years. The attempts of the Democracy to saddle the onus of the trusts upon Republican shoulders have failed miserably, for an exploitation of the facts in connection with that issue has shown conclusively that the coalitions of capital have resulted simply and solely from the opportunities created by the exceeding prosperity of the country and that the Republican party has proved itself more ready to restrict these monopolies than has the Democracy. The cry of imperialism has been silenced by the convincing showing that all that the Administration has sought has been to uphold the honor and dignity of the Stars and Stripes, and that the retention of the Philippines and Porto Rico is the natural result of the military operations abroad into which we were forced by our trouble with Spain. Outside of these three points—the trusts, imperialism and expansion—the Democracy has made no charges, so, as they have been satisfactorily met, the Republicans are going into the fight without there being a weapon of any kind that can be used against them.

As against this splendid and unbroken front the Democrats face the people tomorrow in a discouraged, disunited and dismayed condition. They know that they are hopelessly beaten, for they have not one positive issue of their own and their attempts to negative the Republican ones have met with complete and utter failure. Their standard-bearer in truth cannot be properly classified as a member of their own party, for he is a Populist by instinct, association and method, and this very fact has brought about a serious defection in their own ranks, a large proportion of their old-time leaders and statesmen having publicly deserted the camp on the score that this year it is not representative of true Democracy. Furthermore, the millstone of free silver hangs around Bryan's neck and is dragging him down just as single-tax swamped Judge Maguire in this State in the gubernatorial election two years ago.

Although the Democratic leaders insisted upon extending any support to Bryan this time that he relegate silver to the background, he did so with such palpable unwillingness that everyone knows that if by any chance he got into power he would immediately drag it into the most prominent place in the foreground again. His campaign declarations have been little short of revolutionary attacks upon good government, and although he has a following of office-seekers and those who see profit for themselves in heralding his gallery fulminations, the sober, sensible elements have long since turned from him in disgust. Looking, therefore, "first upon this picture and then upon that," there can be but one decision—the one the American voter has arrived at. McKinley is going to be elected tomorrow by the largest vote ever cast for a President of the United States.

The annual report of Hon. C. F. Curry, Secretary of State, is a gratifying showing for taxpayers. The receipts of his office during his incumbency have been the heaviest in the history of the State. The gross amount collected during the fifteenth fiscal year was $16,364.65 in excess of the salaries of the employees of the office. Last year the excess was $19,607.15. This demonstrates the efficiency of the force and the splendid executive ability of Mr. Curry. The Secretary makes a number of sensible suggestions in his report that will command attention.

It is the duty of every patriotic citizen to vote against giving control of the Government over to a combination of pro-slavery mossbacks, soft money cranks and corrupt bosses. The maintenance of our financial integrity and National honor depends upon the re-election of William McKinley. To elect Bryan is not only to inflict grievous injury on our domestic institutions but to shame us in the eyes of foreign nations. A vote for McKinley is a vote for the honor of our flag and the safety of American industry.

The voters of Alameda county are again reminded that they have never had a Congressman more deserving their approbation than Victor H. Metcalf. He meets every requirement as to ability and character, and his record is ample assurance that the Third district will be represented by him in the strongest sense of the word. Every ballot should contain a cross opposite his name.

Victor H. Metcalf deserves the vote of every man who believes that a faithful and competent public servant should be continued in office where he can do even better work in the future. Mr. Metcalf has represented the Third District in Congress with eminent ability and fidelity, and the voters of the district owe it to themselves as well as to him to show their approval of his course.

No good Democrat can afford to vote for Bryan, who seeks to get into office by promising anarchy, socialism, free silver or any old issue that he thinks can bring him votes. The United States is too mighty a nation and too important in the world's affairs to have a political juggler in the White House instead of a statesman.

A word to the Democrat or Populist who may yet be on the fence: Don't waste your vote on Bryan, for he can't be elected anyhow, so cast it for McKinley as a matter of local pride and help Alameda county to retain her prestige as the banner county of California.

Congressman Metcalf is modest in his estimate of the majority he will receive next Tuesday. His majority will be materially larger than it was two years ago, and if it were measured by his desert the vote in his favor would be unanimous.

A continuance of McKinleyism means a continuance of good times. The election of Bryan means financial panic and commercial distrust. No good citizen can hesitate as to which way to vote with these facts staring him in the face.

Citizens of the Third District should not forget that Victor H. Metcalf has made an ideal Congressman. He should receive an endorsement commensurate to his merits.

The Democratic National Committee is already preparing to stand from under. That cry of fraud is simply preliminary to looking for a soft spot to fall.

Solano county will probably double the majority given Metcalf in 1898. Why should not Alameda county do as well?

Vote early.

Somewhere in the world life is at stake every minute of the day. Right at our own doors, perhaps, is going on a struggle as grim and fierce as any fight or fight on record. You hear the hollow tearing cough; see the ooze of blood which tells of the wounded lungs; mark the emaciated body and hectic cheek, and know a life is at stake.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has saved many a life in just such a crisis. It cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, stops the hemorrhage, strengthens "weak" lungs, and restores the emaciated body to its normal weight and strength.

There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

"I desire to send you this brief, unsolicited testimonial," writes Rev. Joseph H. Frazier, Marium Springs, Fredell Co., N. C. "In 1895 one of my daughters was suffering on account of a severe cough, hectic fever, wasting of flesh and other symptoms of diseased lungs. I promptly gave her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with gratifying success, and she now enjoys excellent health. This experience caused me to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to my neighbors who, without exception, used them with favorable results."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only, or if cloth bound volume is desired send 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The program consists of two ten and one fifteen round contests for decision and should be one of the best shows ever given in Oakland. George Watson, one of Bob McArthur's clever pupils, will meet Dick Martin of San Francisco at 118 pounds ringside. Chas. Johnson, who fought Billy Martin at the club some time ago, will meet clever Jack Dean of the San Francisco Athletic Club at 135 pounds. Tom Herman, the Terry McGovern of San Francisco, will meet Billy Decourcy, the hard hitter from Los Angeles, at 122 pounds ringside, for the feather-weight championship of the Coast. All this men have been training hard for the last three weeks and will be in the best of condition by November 9th.
